CONNECTING THE DOTS: MAKING SENSE OF EATING DISORDERS.

Friday 19th - Saturday 20th May 2017

Keynote Speakers:

Dr. Roxanne Rockwell is an assistant clinical professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Director of the UC San Diego Adolescent Eating Disorders Service. She has experience in the treatment, evaluation and research of eating disorders and obesity since 1999. She was one of the founding members of the UCSD Eating Disorders Program in 2005, and has been integrally involved in its development and expansion. Dr. Rockwell played a primary role in devising and building the innovative individual and multi-family Intensive Family Therapy (IFT) programs and the adolescent and young adult day treatment and intensive outpatient programs. As a certified Family Based Therapist, she served as the IFT program director for several years, and currently provides training and supervision in this modality for staff and faculty. She founded the UC San Diego Parent Advisory Council (PAC) in 2012 and continues to develop this important service.

Professor Janet Treasure is a psychiatrist who has specialised in the treatment of eating disorders for more than 25 years.

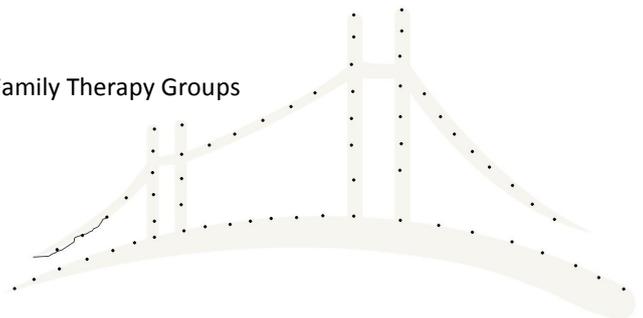

She is currently director of the Eating Disorders Service, a leading centre in the clinical management of eating disorders and training. Professor Treasure is the Chief medical advisor for Beat, the UK's primary eating disorder charity, patron of the Sheffield Eating Disorders Association and Fellow of the Academy of Eating Disorders. She chaired the physical treatment section of the UK National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE) Guideline Committee. During her career, she has edited seven academic texts on eating disorders and authored three self-help books, including "Getting better bite by bite" and "Caring for a loved one with an eating disorder: a skills-based manual of the new Maudsley method" for families and parents of people with an eating disorder.
